Posthumous Degrees and Recognition

I. POLICY

A Posthumous Degree may be awarded to a Lamar University (LU) student who dies within their last semester of enrollment required to complete a degree. The student should meet all other graduation requirements. A request to award a Posthumous Degree should originate from the student's department or Dean and be forwarded to the Provost and Vice President for Academic Affairs ("Provost") with supporting documentation. Any exception to the requirements above must be approved by the Provost.

Eligible students who have not completed sufficient hours to be awarded a Posthumous Degree may be eligible to have a Certificate of Recognition presented to a family member.

A family member or designee may attend the Commencement ceremony to receive the posthumous diploma on behalf of the decedent.

II. PURPOSE AND SCOPE

This policy clarifies eligibility for a Posthumous Degree or Certificate of Recognition while allowing for exceptions in special cases.

This policy falls under the authority of all applicable federal, state, and Texas State University System (TSUS) statutes, rules, and regulations, including, but not limited to, the TSUS Rules & Regulations, Texas Education Code, Title 3, Higher Education, and Texas Administrative Code, Title 19, Education.

III. DEFINITIONS

Certificate of Recognition. In the event that a deceased student has not completed sufficient credit hours toward a degree, the family may be presented with a Certificate of Recognition.

Eligible Student. A student who has enrolled in at least one course, with verifiable attendance/participation.

Graduation Requirements. LU's requirements for graduation are as follows: a minimum 2.0 grade point average (GPA) for undergraduate students or a minimum 3.0 GPA for graduate and doctoral students; minimum 30 hours in residence for an undergraduate student (including hours the semester of a student's death); and a minimum of 42 hours of upper-division credit (including hours the semester of a student's death) for undergraduate students. A submitted graduation application is not included.

Last Semester of Enrollment. Defined as the semester that a student is within 18 hours of the credits required to earn an undergraduate degree or 15 hours of the credits required to earn a graduate/doctoral degree.

Posthumous Degree. A degree awarded on an honorary basis to a student who has died.

Student's Department. The department that houses a student's current program of study.

Supporting Documentation. A published obituary or death certificate.
